

PARENTS AS CAREER COACHES: Senior High

This program is for parents (grand-parents etc.) of students in grades 9/10 to 12. It will provide you with the tools and information will help your children explore potential occupations which will help them to identify and explore occupations, which relate to their interests and skills. Parents as Career Coaches also encourages parents and their children to consider the many practical factors that will impact career decisions, including skills, the labour market (what occupations are in high demand), and the education and training requirements to pursue these goals.

This very popular program has received consistently strong ratings, from parents, over the years. 99% of parents who attended the PACC Senior High program (2015-16 academic year) rated it as either "Excellent" or "Good".

Parents as Career Coaches* provides you with:

- Information about what the career journey looks like, to help you deal with the many twists and turns that can occur.
- Details on critical skills and personal qualities required to be both competitive and successful, in the work force.
- Information on websites, which will provide information on specific jobs, labour market demands, education/training requirements, salaries and much more.
- A parent guide designed to help you work with your children throughout their career journey.
- A student workbook, which provides your daughter or son with information and activities to:
 - Identify interests and skills
 - Research occupations
